I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Respectfully submitted,

Joshua Smith
U.S. Probation Officer

Place Nashville, Tennessee

Date September 11, 2014

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.	Nature of Noncompliance
----------------------	--------------------------------

1.	The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.
----	--

On August 28, 2014, Mr. Bond tested positive for cocaine. He denied using cocaine and reported that he had obtained transportation from his aunt who uses cocaine in her cigarettes. He reported that she smoked the cocaine laced cigarettes while transporting him in the vehicle.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Mr. Bond began supervised release on June 10, 2014. He is scheduled to terminate supervision on June 9, 2017.

As result of the positive drug testing, drug testing for Mr. Bond has been increased, and he was referred for a substance abuse assessment.

Mr. Bond is unemployed and is reportedly searching for employment. He has informed the probation officer that he is also applying for benefits with the Social Security Administration due to his medical condition of epilepsy.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully requested that no action be taken by the Court at this time to allow opportunity for Mr. Bond to benefit from substance abuse treatment.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been notified and concurs with the above recommendation.
